Notification and election of rights concerning the contemplated imposition of non-judicial punishment in the case of HOSPITAL CORPSMAN ALEGRIA C. MONGE, USN 1234187054, assigned or attached to H&S Company, 3d Medical Battalion.

NOTIFICATION

1. In accordance with the requirements of MCM, 2019, Part V, paragraph 4, you are hereby notified that the Battalion Commander is considering imposing non-judicial punishment (NJP) on you because of the following alleged offenses:

Charge I: Article 92 - Failure to obey lawful general order or regulation.

Specification: In that Hospital Corpsman Alegria C. Monge, United States Navy, 3d Medical Battalion, did, on or about 2100 on 29 October 2021 at or near Naha, Okinawa Japan, violate a lawful order which was her duty to obey, to wit: 3D MLG ROM Policy Version 3; FRAGO 003 to III MEF-MARFORJ COVID 19 Outbreak Response EXORD 21-002; ANNEX B – COVID 19 Off-Duty Activities; 3D MEDICAL BATTALION ORDER 1050.10H; MARFORJO 1050.1A Liberty Regulations, by violating her Restriction of Movement (ROM) instruction and went on liberty off-base while still on ROM status, by being in an off-base establishment past the curfew of 2100 – 0500, by going off-base liberty and consuming alcohol off-base while in Tier 2 or Tier 3 Liberty Status, and by dressing in an inappropriate attire during liberty.

2. The allegations against you are based on the following information:

(1) Command Investigation by [REDACTED] dated 30 November 2021

(2) Enlisted Disciplinary Review Board Report 24 January 2022

3. You have the right to refuse imposition of NJP. If you refuse NJP, charge is referred to trial by court-martial by summary, special, or general court-martial. If charge is referred to trial by summary court-martial, you may not be tried by summary court-martial over your objection. If charge is referred to a special or general court-martial you will have the right to be represented by counsel. The maximum punishment that could be imposed if you accept NJP is:

a. Battalion NJP – (1) reduction of one pay grade; (2) restriction for a period not to exceed 60 days; (3) extra duties for a period not to exceed 45 days; (4) if restriction and extra duties are awarded jointly, the maximum period is 45 days; and, (5) forfeiture of one-half of one month's pay for two months.

4. If you decide to accept NJP, you may request a personal appearance before the Battalion Commander or you may waive this right.

a. Personal appearance waived. If you waive your right to appear personally before the Battalion Commander, you will have the right to submit any written matters you desire for the Battalion Commander's consideration in determining whether or not you committed the offenses alleged, and, if so, in determining an appropriate punishment. You are hereby informed that you have the right to remain silent and that anything you do submit for consideration may be used against you in a trial by court-martial.

b. Personal appearance requested. If you exercise your right to appear personally before the Battalion Commander, you shall be entitled to the following rights at the proceeding:

(1) To be informed of your rights under Article 31(b), UCMJ;

(2) To be informed of the information against you relating to the offense(s) alleged;

(3) To be accompanied by a spokesperson provided and arranged for you by you. A spokesperson is not entitled to travel or similar expenses; and the proceedings will not be delayed to permit the presence of a spokesperson. The spokesperson may speak on your behalf, but may not question witnesses except as the Battalion Commander may permit as a matter of his/her discretion. The spokesperson need not be a lawyer;

(4) To be permitted to examine documents of physical objects that the Battalion Commander intends to rely on in deciding whether and how much non-judicial punishment to impose;

(5) To present matters in defense, extenuation, and mitigation; orally, in writing, or both;

(6) To have witnesses attend the proceeding, including those that may testify against you, if their statements will be relevant and they are reasonably available. A witness is not reasonably available if the witness requires reimbursement by the United States for any cost incurred in appearing, cannot appear without unduly delaying the proceedings, or if a military witness, cannot be excused from other important duties, and;

(7) To have the proceedings open to the public unless the Battalion Commander determines that the proceedings should be closed for good cause. However, this does not require that special arrangements be made to facilitate access to the proceeding.

5. In order to help you decide whether or not to demand trial by court-martial or to exercise any of the rights explained above should you decide to accept non-judicial punishment, you may obtain the advice of a lawyer prior to any decision. If you wish to talk to a lawyer, a military lawyer will be made available to you, either in person or by telephone, free of charge, or you may obtain advice from a civilian lawyer at your own expense. Camp Foster Legal Service Support, Bldg. 437, has walk-in appointments available every Tuesday and Thursday starting at 1230.

This section is to be completed before finishing remainder of notification

ACCUSED'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF APPEAL RIGHTS

I, Hospital Corpsman Alegria C. Monge, USN, 1234187054, assigned or attached to Headquarters and Service Company, 3d Medical Battalion have been informed of the following facts concerning my rights of appeal as a result of office hours held on 2 March 2022.

- a. I have the right to appeal to Commanding General, 3d Marine Logistics Group via the Staff Judge Advocate.
- b. My appeal must be submitted within a reasonable time. Five days after the punishment is imposed is normally considered a reasonable time, in the absence of unusual circumstances. Any appeal submitted thereafter may be rejected as not timely. If there are unusual circumstances which I believe will make it extremely difficult or not practical to submit an appeal within the five day period, I should immediately advise the officer imposing punishment of such circumstances, and request an appropriate extension of time which to file my appeal.
- c. The appeal must be in writing.
- d. There are only two grounds for appeal, those are:
 - (1) The punishment was unjust, or
 - (2) The punishment was disproportionate to the offense(s) for which it was imposed.
